important and substantial way. The planetary positions at the time of a person's birth ascertain the personality of that individual in correspondence to their prime number. A primary and a secondary planet governing each individual at the time of birth respond to their own number or their birth number. As the most feminine among all numbers, Number 2 is the most under estimated number when it comes to judging its power and strength. Hence it is mostly termed as the great feminine number.

As this number seeks to be quite understanding, tactful, diplomatic, and gentle and itself aloof, maintains itself by keeping silent, peaceful and will try to avoid confrontations as possible as possible as anything. If we look at its shape, we would find and recognize a symbolic gesture of its survivor and an extremely mild force. Its shape and size is like a bent on its knees with its head and back bowed in humility and forgiveness, which makes it easy to recognize it as weak and powerless creature. This is in sharp contrast to the powerful and the mighty and number 1, who does not allow itself to bow to anyone at any cost. On the other hand, when the humble and feminine 2 finds itself under attack and burdened with a crushing weight, it allows itself to bend and bends as much as demanded. If and when the weight is removed, its flexibility and its elastic, force come right back up to its normal position, just with no or little harm done and this number will continue to play its role.

The common strength and power of number 2 is resilient and lasting, just like its shape which largely beautifies its nature and beauty. There is much more to its eye, and it is often the true power behind its skill and caliber.

As we are familiar to the leadership and decisive qualities of birth no 1, which contradicts the advice of his greatest folly, the number 2 as number twos are smart and possess the underlying qualities and gives the direction to the people as what is to be done. And you can probably succeed in most lines of work. You will do better outside of the business world. You are more content working with your ideals, rather than being practical in terms of money matters. The positive aspects are idealistic attitude, long term thinking, far reaching effects of actions and plans, your support and for art, music, and beauty in any form.
